

K'omoks Estuary; Highlighting Habitat Restoration, Estuary Biodiversity and First Nation's Culture

Leader Name: Dan Bowen, Project Watershed Technical Director

Dates: 1:30 Friday, May 13th and 1:30 Saturday May 14th. Return by 5:30 pm

Meeting Location: Filberg Centre. Tour Location: K'omoks Estuary

Car pool, Bus or Provided: Car Pool; Maps will be available at the Registration Desk

Maximum number of Participants: 25

What to Bring: - Binoculars, camera, water, lunch or snack etc.

How to dress: Based on weather conditions; Waterproof shoes or boots suggested

What to expect on trip: We hope to visit 10 top viewing areas. See map above.

Difficulty of Trip Rated as 3 (Moderate). Sorry, but the locations are not Wheel Chair Accessible.

Miscellaneous Details: We will tour the entire estuary with the time allotted. Time in each area will be determined by its significance. Areas of focus will be estuary history, flora, and fauna. Salmon, birds, salt-marsh and eel grass.

Project Watershed Web Site: <http://projectwatershed.ca/>