

Kevin Flesher Comox Valley Poet Laureate, 2015-2017

“My mission is to create more opportunities for more people to experience more poetry,” he said. “Old and young, folks all sorts, in all the nooks and crannies of our valley. I will stir the pot and stoke the fire, bang the tune and strum the lyre.

I will be available to write and perform poems for special occasions, perhaps your next funeral or court case could be tweaked with a fresh Limerick. I look forward to serving the Valley in a new and tasty way. With fresh and zesty verse and rhymes served in a lush bouquet.”

(from <https://www.comoxvalleyarts.com/what-we-do/comox-valley-poet-laureate-project/poet-laureate-kevin-flesher/>)

“Kevin has had a long and interesting history as an educator. At Kananaskis Provincial Park, he received several awards for excellence in interpretive programming. At the Royal Tyrrell Museum of Palaeontology, he was part of the award winning distance-learning department, creating and delivering educational videoconferences to classrooms worldwide. Since moving to Vancouver Island, he has worked as a grizzly bear safari guide at Knight Inlet Lodge and as an entertainer.”

“For more information on Kevin's availability or presentation information, contact him through email at kevin.flesher@gmail.com.”

Photo and quote from <http://www.cswm.ca/kevin.html>